GEORGE HALL, who sold the property for which he had no title, was yesterday discharged from Jail, the matter having been compromised by the other party, Mr. Asa A. Flint.

PIEE's PEAK .- A gentleman just from this ery interesting place, is in our city, and we understand about to get up a complete map of the whole country and the route thereto.

THE case of Abe Cross, for the burglary and larceny at the residence of the late W. M. Churchill, was commenced at a late hour yesterday afternoon before Judge Carter. Several prisoners were sentenced also, whose name will be found in our Law report.

SUDDEN DEATH .- A German woman, while engaged at the wash-tub, day before yesterday, fell down, and in a few minutes, died. She resided on Eighth street, between Sycamore and Broadway, and was supposed to have come to her death from palpitation of the heart, or ome disease of that nature.

ACCIDENT TO A SERVANT GIRL .- A servant girl, who resides in the capacity of a nurse at the house of Mr. B. Lemmon, on Ninth street, below John, fell down stairs with a babe in her arms, a few days ago, and, although the child the Little Glass Slipper." was not injured by the accident, she was hurt so severely in the spine, that it is thought sh can not recover.

BURGLARY .- Four boys, Anthony Hull, Benjamin Crawford, John Kroch and Kneeland Hill-the cldest being not more than sixteen years of age-were arrested and lodged in the Ninth street Station-house, yesterday, charged with having burglariously entered a house in the western part of the city. They will appear at the Police Court this morning.

ONE of the most intellectual ministers in the city, in consequence of some disagreement be tween him and his congregation, is, we learn, about to be presented with a petition requesting him to resign, one having already been circulated for that purpose. We sincerely hope this may not prove true, for intellect, and liberality and rationalism are very much needed, we think, in our nineteenth century pulpits.

ARRESTED FOR GRAND LARCENY. - A man named John McIlvain was arrested yesterday and taken to the Ninth-street Station-house, charged with having stolen $125 from a young man whom he met at a bagnio on Rittenhouse street. It is thought there was another concerned in the affair, who has escaped, and with whom he had divided the money, as but $63 was found upon his person. He will have a hearing before Judge Pruden this morning.

A SAD CASE .- William Pugh-a brother, we believe, of Senator Pugh-yesterday, by some means, obtained a vial of laudanum, with which he threatened self-destruction. Some persons, who knew him, had him locked up, so that he could not do himself violence, where we hope he may recover from this tempo rary desire to take his life, and with a violent hand burst through the portal which leads to the Unknown.

MECHANICS' AND MANUFACTURERS' EXCHANGE. Pursuant to a call recently made upon our citizens, for the purpose of organizing a Mechanics' and Manufacturers' Exchange, quite number of the leading men interested in such matters met at the Mechanics' Institute last evening. Mr. Robert M. Mitchel, of the firm of Mitchel & Rammelsberg, was called to the Chair. Mr. J. B. Elliott was appointed Secretary. On a call from the Chairman, Mr. Elliot stated the object of the meeting, and read from reports of similar organizations in other cities, their character, objects, etc.

On motion of Mr. Chas. F. Wilstach, it was resolved that we organize a Mechanics' and Manufacturers' Exchange in this city. On this motion many spoke, and all con curred in its importance. On motion, a committee of five were appointed to draft a constitution and by-laws, to presented at the next meeting. Mr. Chas. Wilstach, Philip Hinkle, Benj. Bruce, A.

B. Latta and P. B. Lane constituted the committec. The meeting then adjourned to meet in the same place, on next Thursday evening, at half past seven P. M., to adopt the constitution and complete the organization.

APPLICATION TO DISCRARGE MRS. BURNS. Application was made by G. P. O'Donnell for the discharge of Mrs. Burns from custody on the charge of murder in the first degree. The ground of the application was that the Grand Jury had failed to find a bill in the case. The Prosecuting Attorney said that the Grand Jury had not yet passed on the case at all. Judge Carter refused the motion. [The Probate Judge, to whom a similar ap-lication was made, upon the hearing of a writ f habeas corpus, also refused to discharge the ecused.]

AMUSEMENTS.

WOOD'S THEATER .- The audience at this establishment was not so good last night as the performance deserved. This evening is set apart for the benefit of Mrs. Effe Elisler, a lady who is pleasing in all she undertakes. The bill is a good one-consisting of "Domby and Son" and the fairy spectacle of "Cinderella, or, their report. Granted.

NATIONAL HALL .- A very fair house ness Bulwer's beautiful play of the "Lady of Lyons." The "Claude" of Mr. Sullivan evidences his care and study, as do all his renditions, and was dressed in much better taste than we ever before saw it. The play was well cast and for the most part carefully performed. To-night Mr. Sullivan takes a benefit, and appears as Shylock in the "Merchant of Venice," and as "Don Cosar de Bazan," in the popular drama of that name.

PIKE'S OPERA HOUSE .-- We have the pleasure to announce that Flotow's beautiful opera of "Martha" will be performed on the opening night at this magnificent musical temple. In the cast are the names of Colson, Madame Strakosch, Brignoli and Junea, as brilliant a quartette as could be brought together on any operatic stage in the Union. By the Chicago papers we are informed that a complimentary benefit to Mr. Strakosch takes place this evening, the tickets to which were disposed of before yesterday. We would remind those who wish choice seats for the season, of the necessity of being present at the sale, at nine o'clock to-morrow morning. At twelve o'clock, M., the sale of seats for the first, second and third nights will take place.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE .- A German named Bodeman, a cabinet maker, who after having ought in every part of the city for work, and having failed in all, driven to desperation by the frowns of the Fates, threw himself from the old Exchange Bridge, which crosses the Mismi Canal near Western Row, for the purpose of drowning himself. He was seen by some persons who were near, and who succeeded in resguing him, much to his annoyance, from a grave just then; but he said there was more in life than he could bear, and threatened to destroy himself at some other time. Poor fellow !-What he must have suffered, e'er he could thus conclude to "shuffle off this mortal coil" and rush unbidden to the arms of death.

SENT TO COLUMBUS .- Thirteen prisoners were sent to the Penitentiary at Columbus, last night, for crimes and terms as follows, vix: Charles Cook and William Seiter, murder in the second degree, for life; William Bowman, counterfeiting, seven years; John Graham, burglary, seven years; Isaac and William Landis, receiving stolen goods, three years each; William Lehman and Daniel Malhorn, burglary, five years each; Charles Grafton and Charles Brooks, counterfeiting, four years each; Charles Grove and Katherine Harris, grand larceny, one year each; and John Webb, for stabbing with ntent to kill, one year.

ROBBED IN MARKET .- A lady, Mrs. Claypole, was robbed in the Sixth street Market-place, near Plum, yesterday morning, of about $12 in money and a gold bracelet. The pickpockets, with which our city seems to be just now warming, grow bolder daily and appear to be reaping a rich harvest.

THE Hamilton County Teachers' Association meets in Cumminsville High School Building, on Saturday, at nine o'clock A. M.

The Pioneer Association.

The adjourned meeting of the Cincinnati Pioneer Association was held yesterday in the City Building; business commencing at three o'clock, Thos. Henry Yeatman, Vice President, in the chair.

Members present, Messrs. R. Reagin, J. Spinning, Wm. Nixon, Wm. Moody, Thos. H. Yeatman, J. McFarland, J. Pancoast, J. Jackon, Col. John Johnson, James Orr, Tho's Ernest, G. Parsell, R. Thornton, C. B. Greene, J. W. Masson, W. T. Simpson, W. P. Stratton, J. W. Mason, J. Coppin, Peyton Symmes, John Reeves, R. K. Cox, Daniel Carroll, Jos. S. Ross and J. C. Ross.

After reading the minutes of the last meeting, it was moved, seconded and carried, that the address of Nicholas Longworth, Esq., delivered before the Association on the 24th inst., be entered on the records.

A letter from N. Longworth, Esq., enclosing ne from General Cass, acknowledging the receipt of an invitation to be present at the approaching banquet of the Association, but declining the honor intended, was next read. The letters are as follows:-

Mr. Longworth's letter to the chairman of the meeting-

CINCINNATI, March 4, 1859. Dear Sir-The Pioneer Association requires a younger President, and one who has more leisure to attend to his duties than I have. My intention was to resign, when informed of my appointment, as soon as I had sent in an address. To do that required an old Pioneer, and one old enough to have the singular pride to one old enough to have the singular pride to boast of his age. How old we of the male gender must be before we reach this point, I can not say. Possibly as many years as our mistresses. On a certain occasion a meeting was held of old females, and the inquiry was, "How old is a woman before she takes pride in boasting of her age?" One said sixty years, another seventy, and some more, when to sattle other seventy, and some more, when, to settle other seventy, and some more, when, to settle the question, they agreed to leave it to old grandmother, who was sitting in a soft arm-chair by the fire, who was ninety-five years of age. "Oh," said the old lady, "you must ask somebody who is older than I am!" I send you Mr. Cass' letter. My respects to the Association. N. LONGWORTH.

General Cass' letter to Mr. Longworth, as President of the Association, was next read:

WASHINGTON, March 1, 1859. Dear Sir: I have received your letter, and wish I could be with you on the 17th of April. That day is memorable in the History of Ohio. It would do me good to pass it in the company of the Old Pioneers, and to recall days and scenes what have left their mark upon my memory. But I must forego this pleasure. My public duties will necessarily detain me here, and I must content myself with offering the

and I must content myself with assurance of my regard.

I am greatly obliged to you for the hospitable invitation to take up my quarters at your house, which I should have been happy to accept, had it been in my power.

I am, Dear Sir, with much regard,
Truly yours,
LEWIS CASS.

A request from the Committee of Arrange nents for the proposed banquet, for an extension of the time for making their report, was solicited. Granted.

The Committee on the Gano Monument also asked for further time for the preparation of Colonel Johnston proposed that the name of

Robert C. Schenck, of Dayton, Montgomery County, should be enrolled on the pioneer list The Chairman said that if Mr. Schenck was eligible-which he did not doubt-the course for him to pursue was to subscribe to the rules of the Association, and he was a member forth-

Colonel Johnston suggested the propriety of taking monthly subscriptions from the members for the meeting of expenses incidental to the carrying out of the objects of their Association. No action.

It was next proposed that a committee of five be appointed for the purpose of taking the necessary steps for procuring the title-deed of the lot granted the Association at Spring Grove Cemetery. After some discussion the matter was laid over for the present.

The formal business of the meeting having drawn to a close, it was suggested that Colonel Johnston entertain the meeting with a few incidents of the early condition of Ohio. The Colonel cheerfully rose to comply with the request: he said he did not know that there was one person in Cincinnati at the presen time who had been here in '92-the year he(the speaker) came out to Ohio. He well recollected a rather adventurous journey he took in the fall of '94. Those were dangerous times in consequence of the depredations of the Indians. He formed one of a party ordered to Pittsburg Owing to the boisterous and very irregular conduct of most of the men, eight persons and himself (chiefly officers), dropped behind, and pursued the journey by the river, at the imminent risk of attack from Indians. It took them 27 days to reach Pittsburg, during which time they suffered severely from the nettles and rough underwood that grew on the bottoms. He and his party arrived in Pittsburg in the midst of the "Whisky Rebellion," and as they were government men, they had to take down their cockades, or they would have met with bad treatment-the friends of the government being obnoxious to the insurgents. The Colonel described some of the depredations perpetrated by those lawless people, for he staid in Pittsburg until the insurrection was suppressed, which was effected by the arrival of an army the winter following. When order was restored, the government left 1,200 men at Bentley's Creek, to keep the country quiet, for it was apprehended that disaffection lurked in many places round. That army was placed under the celebrated Morgan-having been conducted part of the way by General Washington, who delivered it over to General Hamilton, by whom it was led into Pittsburg. Three of the ringleaders of the insurrection were sentenced to be hauged, but were pardoned by General Washington at the instance of the Quakers, who interfered for their preservation.

Colonel Johnston witnessed another insurrection, that of the Germans in the lower part of Pennsylvania. But the Germans were not the men to make much resistance, so it was soon quelled. That was in the time of John

He remembered having seen a man publiciy whipped-a white man, too-in the streets of Cincinnati; for it was sometimes the custom
